

Peer Recovery Housing Specialist

Our Service Description

Dedicated to providing safe, supportive housing and recovery services to individuals in an environment conducive to recovery, transition, and restoration. To facilitate an environment that affords opportunities for education, empowerment, enlightenment, and healing for women recovering from addictions

Main Purpose of Service

The main purpose of this position is to assist participants in identifying and connecting with appropriate recovery supports, developing motivation for recovery, and establishing and maintaining recovering lifestyles.

The Peer Housing Specialist shall ensure the safety of the participants that LTC serves. The PRHS shall maintain day to day operations and ensure an environment conducive to recovery.

Assist participants to create their own recovery wellness plans and develop their own recovery pathways. As such, recovery plans and other supports are customized, and build on the individual's strengths, needs, and recovery goals.

In a Peer Support Role you will be of service by:

Advocating for the women in recovery.

Share resources

Lead recovery groups.

Mentor and assist the participant to set goals.

If you consider serving in this role – there are additional responsibilities described in the PRHS Service Description.